This Lent our theme for worship is Open our Lives, God. On Sundays we're asking questions that can open us; questions like, "who will you listen to?" "how do we begin again?" "where are you headed?" We're also drawing on poetry and visual art. On Wednesdays we're considering how God opens our eyes, hands, ears, hearts and lives.

This theme has gotten me thinking about our bodies and how God is at work in and for our bodies. I'm also pondering bodies as I'm aware that many of you are facing health challenges and sitting at the bedside of loved ones who are sick and dying. One of my favorite pieces of poetry about bodies is a blessing by Jan Richardson (see below.)

Living as a fragile body in this world is both hard and holy. It is both beautiful and brutally hard. It amazes me that God knows what it is to live as a human body. God knows the joys and the challenges.

It's also amazing that our own bodies are a sanctuary for God world. Our individual bodies and our collective body are a home for God, a way for us and others to experience God. How is it with your body? How is it with our collective body as a congregation? As you ponder those questions, remember that God looks upon us and says: Holy. Beloved. Sanctuary.

Blessing the Body by Jan Richardson

This blessing takes one look at you and all it can say is holy.

Holy hands.
Holy face.
Holy feet.
Holy everything in between.

Holy even in pain. Holy even when weary. In brokenness, holy. In shame, holy still.

Holy in delight.
Holy in distress.
Holy when being born.
Holy when we lay it down at the hour of our death.

So, friend, open your eyes (holy eyes).
For one moment see what this blessing sees, this blessing that knows how you have been formed and knit together in wonder and in love.

Welcome this blessing that folds its hands in prayer when it meets you; receive this blessing that wants to kneel in reverence before you: you who are temple, sanctuary, home for God in this world.

PRAYER FOR THE GOOD SHEPHERD CONGREGATION

Offered by Jane Jakoubek

Dear God, help me keep turning back to you...when I lose my way...when I get distracted...when other things are more enticing...when the going gets tough. Help me be faithful to my commitment to make this season of Lent a time to deepen my awareness of your presence in my life and your call to join you in caring for your beloved people and this earth.

Dear God, help me to keep trusting you...when I lose my way...when nothing seems to change...when my frustration overwhelms me...when I want to be in charge of my own life. Help me know that you are at work in and through all things, even when it doesn't make sense to me, even when there is no end in sight.

Dear God, help me to grow in compassion and courage,...compassion and courage when things confuse me...compassion and courage when judging others is easier...compassion and courage when I need to take risks to reach out to others on your behalf. Help me turn to you for the compassion and courage I need now in Lent, to keep turning back to you, to keep trusting you, and to keep serving you. Amen.

LENT WITH GOOD SHEPHERD: OPEN OUR LIVES, GOD

This Lent, we turn to God seeking release from all that binds us, seeking a spacious and expansive experience of God so that we may share God's love and mercy. During Sunday worship, we'll reflect on questions that can open us to deeper faith. During Wednesday Evening Prayer, we'll pray for God to open our eyes, hands, hearts, ears, and lives.

Lenten soup suppers are back this year! Plan to enjoy this meal after midweek worship at 6:00 pm in the Fellowship Hall. See the next page for more information.

Confirmation Mentors During Lent During Lenten Soup Suppers, our Confirmands and Kelli will be sharing high and lows, talking about midweek worship, praying for each other, and blessing each other.

Lenten recitals will happen in the month of March - see page 6 for more information.

The Lent Youth Project, selected by our Confirmation students with a goal of $5000, focuses on housing insecurity, specifically people who are unhoused. Donations will be shared locally with House of Hope, a shelter in Waterloo for single women, mothers, and children without housing; and globally with those impacted by the ongoing crisis caused by earthquakes in Turkey and Syria.

- Worshippers are invited to come forward each Wednesday and Sunday to place their offering in a small house in front of the altar.
- Youth will provide Temple Talks about the project each Sunday.
- When giving towards this project, please write
 "Lenten Youth Project" in the memo

Easter Brunch will happen following Easter Sunday worship. This year it is offered by Good Shepherd Youth and the Mission Endowment Fund. See page 7 for more information.

The series kicks off on March 15, featuring renowned organist Jean-Baptiste Robin. Robin is regarded as one of the most prominent French concert organists and composers of today. With his appointment in 2010 as Organist of the Royal Chapel at the Palace of Versailles, he secured a place in a long line of famous French organists, such as François Couperin, Louis Marchand, Louis-Claude Daquin, and Claude Balbastre. He also serves as Professor of Organ and Composition at the Conservatoire à Rayonnement Régional in Versailles.

Then the next day, Sunday, March 12th, Youth will be hosting fellowship. We will be serving the house cookies and having a brief forum from House of Hope. I will need youth to help with set up and clean up during fellowship.

EASTER BREAKFAST: MISSION ENDOWMENT FUND

The Good Shepherd Easter Breakfast is back! The Mission Endowment Fund Committee is partnering with our Youth Ministry to provide this annual celebration for the Good Shepherd congregation and guests. The breakfast will be offered as a fundraiser to assist the Mission Endowment Fund Committee's commitment to award EPIC Scholarships to Good Shepherd students attending ELCA colleges or universities.

MEF Committee member Jim Buzza and Kelli Gapinski, Director of Children, Youth and Family Ministry, are providing the leadership and Good Shepherd youth and members of the Mission Endowment Fund Committee will serve the meal. Bob and Ann Naslund have generously provided $250 to fund the breakfast through the use of their Thrivent Community Impact Card. Come and enjoy a Good Shepherd tradition and support this long-time Good Shepherd ministry. A freewill offering will be accepted.

The Mission Endowment Fund was established in the 1990s with $50,000 received from the sale of church property to the late Weston Noble. The fund has grown to approximately $115,000, of which 4% can be used annually for scholarships/ grants. With the 4% annual limitation, it takes $25,000 to generate one $1,000 scholarship; the current balance of $115,000 allows for four and a half awards. The long-term goal is to grow the fund to $200,000-$250,000 which will generate 8 to 10 scholarships annually.

This academic year the MEF Committee awarded 4 scholarships and it anticipates there will be a need for five next year. During the 2024-2025 academic year it is estimated there will be a need for 9 or 10 scholarships.

STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE HIGHLIGHT: GOOD SHEPHERD PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

THE PRAYER

May God's grace be upon this shawl... warming, comforting, enfolding and embracing.
May this shawl be a safe haven...
a sacred place of security and well-being...
sustaining and embracing in good times as well as difficult ones.
May the one who receives this shawl
be cradled in hope,
kept in joy,
graced with peace,
and wrapped in love.
May God's grace be upon this shawl...
Blessed be!

THE SHAWL

Prayer Shawls are knit and crocheted by the gifted hands of members of the Good Shepherd Prayer Shawl Ministry. The yarn used to create them is provided by the members, who may choose to be reimbursed by a $1000 budget line item approved by the congregation at last month's Annual Meeting.

Each Shawl receives the Prayer of Blessing before it is presented to a recipient. Shawls are given to those in need as well as those experiencing joy, regardless of their affiliation with Good Shepherd Church.

THE MINISTRY

The Good Shepherd Prayer Shawl Ministry began in 2005 under the leadership of Marion Hanson. The group meets on the third Wednesday of the month September through May, from 1:00-3:00 p.m., in the church's Gathering Space. An invitation is extended to anyone wanting to participate; contact Jeri Laursen or Connie Buresh for more information.

"I have a dream..."

"I have a dream..."

"I have a dream..."

Those words from Martin Luther King, Jr touch me as much today as they did when I first heard them in 1968. They are an unending drumbeat calling for change, a change we need today just as much then.

It's worth reading or listening to his whole speech (see links below). He shows how the sweep of our nation's history falls so short of its promise. His words are powerful, moving, demanding. But he shows us his dream, too. He offers us hope, promise, a future worth working for.

Sometimes in church I hear verses of scripture that echo King, and then I remember that's because he got many of them from the Bible. Those are not just Martin Luther King, Jr's words; they are God's words.

Can you imagine God's dream for our world? What might God say to us to help us realize that dream?

God's message to us is there in the Bible. Here are some verses that speak powerfully to me about God's dream for our world and my role in making that dream real:

- God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good. Genesis 1:31 'Thus says the Lord, the God of the Hebrews: Let my people go,...Exodus 9.1
- For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans for your welfare and not for harm, to give you a future with hope." Jeremiah 29:11
- Seek good and not evil, that you may live, and so the Lord, the God of hosts, will be with you,...Hate evil and love good, and establish justice in the gate...let justice roll down like water and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream. Amos 5:14-15; 21; 24
- Is this not the kind of fasting I have chosen: to loose the chains of injustice and untie the cords of the yoke, to set the oppressed free and break every yoke? (Isaiah 58:6)
- [W]hat does the Lord require of you but to do justice and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God? Micah 6:8
- I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly. John 10:10b I will not leave you all alone. John 14:18a
- For where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them. Matthew 18:20
- [t]hose who hope in the LORD will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles'; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint" (Isaiah 40:31)
- He gives strength to the weary and increases the power of the weak (Isaiah 40:29) Behold, I make all things new. Revelation 21:5

What verses, stories, and parables from the Bible are powerful for you? What helps you join in the fight for justice? What helps you walk humbly with God? What gives you hope against all odds? (continued on next page)

ANTIRACISM DEVOTION

Prayer: Merciful God, thank you for reminding us over and over of the kind of world and community you dream of. Thank you for teaching us how to contribute to your work of bringing our world into line with your dream. Thank you for giving us the courage to struggle with places where there is injustice, to keep learning about what we can do, and to keep praying for a world where justice flourishes for all your beloved children. Amen. Here is a link for a transcript of Martin Luther King's speech: Martin Luther King, Jr. Here is a link for a recording of the speech:

Working with the flow and possibly following that in the council meetings. Connections to be presented by counsel members and using post it notes with three topics or themes so that we can use the pattern for work in the counsel. Brainstorming the post it notes in relationship with other post its. Recognizing gifts as a base.
- Proposal from Facilities and Grounds committee to change insurance companies:

 Grinnell Mutual proposal This will involve a change in the budget because of a budgeting error and an additional cost for new year. Looking into changing to a new local company who understands covering solar power. Jim, Tim, and Brian will be looking into this and returning information in March.
- Reminders for committee liaisons Lise asks what others will be doing to connect with their committee. It can vary by meeting and be in touch as is appropriate. Copies of reports to Tim, the president, will be sent to the Liaison ahead of the meeting. The top three of each

- Outreach & Hospitality: We set times for the year to meet and plan. We planned out our informational time for Feb 12th for the perspective new members. A new item coming from the team is the "Inviting Church Challenge" shared in the newsletter, bulletin, and weekly enews.

- Pastors Report: Upper IA River Conference and stepping down as Dean after 5 years, Water Street Park prayer & confession Ash Wed. Training with SACReD (Spiritual Alliance of Communities for Reproductive Dignity)
- The newly formed Social Justice Team may, from time to time, want to involve the wider congregation in issue based legislative advocacy. This is especially true during the months of Jan. May, when the lowa State Legislature is in session. We might, for example, host post card writing during fellowship hour (much like we did earlier regarding cuts to SNAP benefits) We would like the Church Council to give us guidance on how often and in what ways they would recommend we engage the congregation in legislative advocacy.

We don't want to over burden folks with what may feel like "demands" that they participate in advocacy work. Neither do we want to neglect the very real needs of our neighbors when pending legislation threatens their well-being. The Council's thoughts and guidance will be invaluable for us as we move forward. The council appreciates reaching out in conversation about this. It was discussed that an environment of advocacy can be set up as it has in the past so that it is easy to present the opportunity to respond. Maybe a table or two and other tables where people don't need to feel obligated to participate. Holden Village Advocacy was cited by Anne Clausen. How often doesn't seem like the right direction since it depends on what comes up in the year that the committee deems worthy.

Approval of Treasurers Report- Chris moved approval Marilyn seconded the motion and it passed.
